Canadian Beach Soccer National Team to train at Beach Soccer Jam ...

San Diego, CA, March 6, 2009:

Beach Soccer Jam is proud to announce that the Canadian National Beach Soccer Team will spend three days training in San Diego, which will include some training at Beach Soccer Jam's Fiesta Island prior to their departure to the FIFA World Qualifiers in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico.

We are extremely excited to be able to host our friends from Canada, tournament co-director Raffi Ruotolo says.

Christian Prevost of the Canada football association and long time friend and rival of Ruotolo when touring the world with the Pro Beach Soccer Championship in 1994, says he is looking forward to come down and train prior to heading south to Mexico, as "this will give us a chance to train and get ready for the world qualifiers and in addition also gives me an opportunity to see my old time friends and chat on the progress of Beach Soccer in America."

"We are very pleased to be able to stop in Southern California and look forward to train and play some friendlies while down there."
